One-of-a-Kind Art for Every Kind of Celebration

Original Artwork for Holiday 2023

No Matter How You Celebrate, Find an Artwork that Brings You Joy Every Day of the Year

The holidays can mean different things to different people. Do you look forward to entertaining or keeping it intimate? Is the season about giving back? Or escaping it all and traveling to a far-off locale? No matter how you choose to commemorate this time of year, artwork can serve as the ideal accompaniment. The perfect work can remind you of good times and past adventures or set the stage for making new memories.

For our last catalog of the year, our curators present their favorite artworks to suit any occasion and to provide you with joy and appreciation that extends far past the new year.

REBECCA WILSON, CHIEF CURATOR & VP, ART ADVISORY

FEATURED ARTIST

Kenny Nguyen

Born in Vietnam, Kenny Nguyen moved to the States in 2010 to pursue art. Kenny creates what he calls “deconstructed paintings,” large, bold works comprising hundreds of silk strips that he cuts, paints, and meticulously applies onto canvas. The idea of cutting a fabric revered for its symbol of wealth, beauty, and delicacy in clothing and its century-long ties to trade and status in Asia was a breakthrough for him.

Infinite Dream No.12 Acrylic on silk 60 × 72 in $13,250

Yermine Richardson Caribbean Galaxy - Rain Acrylic on canvas 23.6 × 28.7 in $5,450

CURATOR SPOTLIGHT

Yermine Richardson

"My visual works are vibrant celebrations of Caribbean and African cultures and aesthetics. I'm inspired by the traditional semiotics of Afro-Caribbean heritage such as womanhood, fashion, spiritualism, and cosmology."
